

Colombia

Daniel Bluman

Birthdate
March 15, 1990

Daniel began riding at age three. He was influenced by watching his older cousins showjump. In 2007 he moved to Wellington, FL, United States, in order to further his equestrian career. Daniel's idols in the sport of showjumping are Canadian show jumper Eric Lamaze and the legendary Nelson Pessoa from Brazil. One of the highlights of Daniel's career was competing at the 2012 Olympic Games in London.

Roberto Teran

Birthdate
January 28, 1977

Roberto resides in Melbourne, Florida. He has competed for his country on many Nations Cup teams, as well as the Pan-American Games and at the World Equestrian Games in 2014. He is currently ranked 99 on the FEI Longines World Ranking List.

Fernando Cardenas

Birthdate
January 3, 1972

Fernando is a veterinarian who owns and manages his own 3H Veterinary Clinic in New Hill, North Carolina where he lives. Fernando's father represented Colombia in Dressage in the 1983 Pan American Games in Caracas, Venezuela. Fernando represented Colombia at the 2015 Pan American Games in Toronto, Canada. His ambition is to compete at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro.

Mark Bluman

Birthdate
March 30, 1991

Marky moved to the United States in 2009 from his native country of Colombia. He began riding at the age of three and started competing at age 8. It's a family affair for the Bluman clan, both Marky's brother and his teammate cousin tonight have represented Colombia in Nations Cup competition. Marky and his mount Califa were third in the CSI 5* Grand Prix here in Wellington during WEF Week 5.

